Circular No. 02-FD of 2023

Dated: 17.11.2023

Subject:-Declaration of Quasi-permanency.

It has come to the attention of the Finance Department that the Office of Accountant General (A&E), Jammu & Kashmir, has exhibited reluctance in finalizing pension cases for retired/retiring government employees who have not been declared as quasi-permanent by their respective departments. Additionally, it has been observed that various government departments are not adhering to the J&K Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1961 and are not exercising the powers of declaring government servants as quasi-permanent.

The issue has been examined and attention is invited to statutory rules on the subject as under:

- i. In terms of Rule 3(1) of Jammu & Kashmir Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1961, schedule IX of J&K CSR Vol. II, a Government Servant shall be eligible for being declared as quasi-permanent if he/she has been in continuous Government service for more than 03 years in a department which is not as a whole temporary.*
- ii. The authority competent to declare a Government Servant as quasi-permanent shall be appointing authority.*
- iii. A Government servant in quasi-permanent service shall, as from the date on which his/her service is declared to be quasi-permanent, be entitled to same conditions of service in respect of leave, pay & allowances, joining time as a Government Servant in permanent service holding the specified post.*
- iv. In case of continuous quasi-permanent service of five years or more, a Government servant who may not have been confirmed on any post before the date of his retirement shall be entitled to count the entire period of quasi-permanent service and the continuous temporary service for pension.*
- v. As per proviso to Rule 11 of J&K Civil Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1961, schedule IX of J&K CSR Vol. II, a temporary Government servant with twenty or more years of services who retires on superannuation or on his/her being declared* permanently incapacitated for further government service or who may die while in service shall for purpose of grant of all pensionary benefits be treated as having been a holder of permanent pensionable post in a substantive capacity immediately before his retirement or death as the case may be.

To expedite the settlement of pension cases and minimize avoidable inconvenience to retiring or retired government employees, all departments are hereby impressed upon to adhere the provisions of J&K Civil Services (Temporary Services) Rules, 1961, in letter and spirit.
